

Four Classroom Teacher positions—K, 1, 2, 3

Join our team of professional educators!

The Foundations School, part of Center for Creative Education (www.cceflorida.org) in West Palm Beach, is a new independent school serving students in kindergarten through third grade. Our mission is to transform teaching and learning through creativity and the arts, and we aim to disrupt education inequality. We offer an opportunity to low-income students and families who might not otherwise afford a private school education. Our goal is to inspire a love for learning in our students and for them to achieve academic success. Our goal for teachers is to implement a dynamic and rigorous curriculum that breaks the low achievement mold of struggling schools.

The ideal candidate will have these qualities:

- Bachelor of Education degree (Masters strongly preferred)
- At least three years experience teaching students in grades K-5
- Experience with arts integration and creative mindsets
- Knowledgeable of Social Emotional Learning
- Exposure or training with the Responsive Classroom approach preferred
- Expertise with implementing all aspects of a balanced literacy program
- Proactive, respectful, and consistent classroom management
- Proficient in data-driven, standards-based instructional planning
- Experience with hands-on, inquiry/project-based learning

Position details:

- Full time position, August 2, 2021 - May 31, 2022
- Competitive salary and health benefits, relocation reimbursement
- In-person, on-campus, with small class sizes and thorough COVID-19 safety precautions (daily temperature checks for all students and staff, mask wearing, frequent hand-washing and sanitizing of surfaces, students spaced at least 6 feet apart, no co-mingling of classroom cohorts to maintain social distancing and prevent potential exposure)
- Contact hours: Monday through Friday, 7:30am - 4:30pm
- Two full hours of planning time and one full hour for personal lunch time every day
